AND ESPECIALLY TO

FURNITURE MAKERS

In various paint-shops of town a vulgar falsification of

Soehnees Freres

VARNISHES

is sold. The spurious imitation is recognized—

1st—By the mistakes on the labels. The name of the makers is wriiten—

On the FALSIFIED—SUENNEE FRERES.

On the genuine—SOEHNEE FRERES.

The address is—

On the FALSIFIED—19 RUE DES FILS DU CAVARE 19.

On the genuine—19 RUE DES FILLES DU CALVAIRE 19.

There are other differences we omit, such as the splendid odor which arises when opening the legitimate Varnish of and the beautiful brilliancy given by the use of the genuine stuff.

I notify buyers that the spurious stuff is sold for the same price, and even at higher prices than the genuine Varnish.

There is only one deposit of the legitimate Varish of

and that is the

Pintureria of Monserrat

BUEN ORDEN 160

I have taken steps to prosecute the falsifiers of the Varnish of my representatives, and I advise the falsification factories that I will publish their names and addresses in the papers, besides carrying on my judicial proceedings.

London, 15th.

Lancashire colliers have struck to the number of 50 (?) and those who continued at work were subjected to violence. The public force had to make use of their arms to restrain the strikers, who are so exasperated that further violence and disorder is feared.

NATIONAL PUBLIC WORKS.

When President Roca entered office last October there were twenty men at work in San Luis nominally extending the Andine Railway; now there are one thousand employed in these works. Without loan or contract, mortgage or debenture, the National Government is carrying on the extension, to the astonishment of all. Mr Huergo is ploughing the Atlantic as fast as a Pacific steamer can carry him with a bill for £80,000 stg. in his pocket, to pay for a new dredge larger than any ever before seen in the Plate. A Board of Works Committee has been named in this city to at once arrange for the completion of our City Improvement Works. The National Engineers are surveying several different rontes from Tucuman to Ricja, and whether we look north or south, east or west, we find the Government pushing at all points to complete works already begun, or commence others essentially required, and suchis really the extraordinary enterprize displayed by the Government that our colleague, the Nacion, is alarmed and draws up a schedule of the cost of these works showing that, unless President Roca holds Aladdin's lamp, the country will be plunged into bankruptcy.

The River Plate governments have slept so long, the public treasure has been so persistently required for wars, revolutions, rebellions, &c, that it is really not surprising the undertaking of so many public works by the Government should create, particularly in the minds of opposition politicians, fears that we are going ahead too fast; but all those who believe in the present Government and the country's future share no such apprehensions. The extension of the Andine Railway to Mendoza will, at the rate the National Government is pushing ahead the works, be completed next year: this will tap a new Argentine industry, namely, wine. The people up the country who are putting all their savings into empty bottles, know well what they are about. The Mendoza wine is following in the footsteps of the Tucuman sugar. A few years ago if any man talked of supplying this market with native Argentine sugar, he would have been laughed at, yet now we can't get the sugar down fast enough to meet the demand, and Messrs Fernandez and Moreno, the great Tucuman sugar merchants in Calle Florida, in order to answer all the customers calling, are obliged to put over their Tucuman sugar depot All sold. The Mendoza wine business were French. [illegible] complain of the wines.

As the champagne was und[illegible] Mr Reyes rose, and, as represe[illegible] tive of the Banquet Committee, we[illegible] comed the guests of the day; reca[illegible] pitulated the history of Lujan, so closely linked with political events in this country; pointed out the gradual progress of the place, dwelt on the advantages of the new bank, and drank a flowing bumper to the gentleman, the worthiest son of Lujan, Don Eduardo Casey.

Mr Casey's health was drunk with due honours, and there was no mistaking the eloquent and spontaneous adhesion of those present.

Mr E Casey rose and thanked the company for the toast, assuring that all his efforts would tend to fulfil the wishes of his fellow-citizens, and hoping that perhaps at some future day he might deserve the praise lavished on him by Mr Reyes. He then proposed the health of the worthy Juez de Paz, to whom Lujan owes so much of its present prosperity.

Mr. Jauregui rose and dwelt on Mr. Casey's unceasing efforts in the cause of Lujan, which owed its prosperity to him, and referred to the establishment of the races, stating that a prize of $50,000 m/c was promised for one of the turf meetings, and that if there were any profits they would all go to the improvement of the town (great cheers.)

The Rev. Dean Monsignore Dillon was unanimously asked to speak. He said that he was prepared to do so, as he wished to praise a friend he knew, Mr. Casey, for many years, and would assert that he deserved all the praise bestowed on him. Dean Dillon spoke feelingly, and expressed his satisfaction to see so many people assembled to celebrate a feast of progress and peace. It was his vocation to preach peace, and those who wished progress fostered peace (cheers.)

Mr. E. Casey said that the success of his efforts was also due to the enterprise of Mr. Ullrichs, who was one of the chief promoters of the race-course, and ably seconded him in his crusade to get a branch of the Provincial Bank. He drank to Lujan as the future capital of the province.

Mr. Chas. C. Davis eloquently reminded the company that whilst thinking of those present we should not forget the absent and those gone. He drank to the champion of Buenos Ayres, the late Dr. Alsina. The toast was drunk standing.

Mr. W. Casey toasted Dn. Juan Brown of La Chosa, the most esteemed estanciero of Lujan. Mr. Brown gracefully acknowledged the compliment.

Dn. Juan Brown is one of the pioneers of progress in this Republic, and success has smiled on his whole career: a career of honour and industry.

Mr. W. Mulhall drank to the humble pioneers of progress, who in silence fostered the prosperity of the Republic by the sweat of their brow.

Monsignor Curley tastefully drank the health of the sons of Irishmen, and hoped that they would follow in the steps of Dn. Eduardo Casey.

Mr. T. Bambil also spoke, and Mr. Reyes drank to the fruits of peace. He called on all to discard political animosities and join in a hearty bumper to Concord.

As the conversation grew general Dr. Oreagh, the esteemed and hospitable Hippocrates of Lujan, dwelt on the advantages of canalizing the Rio Lujan, shipping the wool through, bringing down all the barraqueros and shippers from Buenos Aires to Lujan. The practicability of the scheme was contested, but all agreed that if it was feasible the Buenos Aires port scheme was put into a nut-shell.

Several gentlemen successively spoke, and the company broke up at midnight.

We had an opportunity of visiting the principal buildings of the town: progress was evident on all sides. The church is a gem, and we were sorry to hear that the Rev. Father George was unwell. We congratulate him on the acquisition of the fine bells, which sound quite European.

The Pampa gave its fair readers …unday a full description of our British game of Lawn Tennis which is no wall the rage in France also. We should like to see the lovely Porteñas adopt this game. which shows off to advantage good figures and good feet.

The Captain General of Ports has ordered that, for the future, seagoing steamers shall be 'visited' the moment they arrive, even before sunrise, by the Customs officers. What about the doctor's visit ? The early visit of the tidewaiters wont serve passengers much unless the doctor is made to tumble out of bed early also. It would be a first-rate thing for his health these fine summer mornings.

The Committee named to investigate the Sanitary condition of the vessels of the Argentine Navy has reported that a total change is necessary—in food, habits, discipline, clothing etc.

Several soft-pated people got 'stuck' on Saturday night by a bulletin of the Verdad (dead years ago) to the effect that the Chilians had been cut into little bits by the heroic Peruvians and utterly routed.

The Republic of Colombia has, by a herculean effort, raised in N. York two millions of hard dollars, representing a loan of three millions issued at 85, commissions etc. The Government says it 'intends' to pay the country's foreign creditors with this cash ; but we all know and hope never to see the place that is said to be paved with good intentions.

The residents on the Flores Road were much alarmed the other day at ten carts, laden with gunpowder, covered with a tarpaulin and without guard or police, proceeding in the middle of the day under a blazing sun to the powder house, behind Mrs Rae's at Caballito. One spark and we were all done for. Such scandalous carelessness calls for the severest censure. If only one of the carts blew up, what a scene would have ensued ?

The Na.. Government, we hear, has sent a protest to the Government of Corrientes against all sales of land in Misiones.

The new town-clock presented by Congress last year to the Municipality of Belgrano was put in its place on Sunday, and there was some mild festivity to mark the event. When are we to have the town-clock of Buenos Aires replaced. 'Says the Raven—Never more.'

Another bull-fighting Richmond, Mr Francis, entered the field yesterday for permission to erect a bull ring in this city. The persistency displayed by these bull-fighting gentry is something extraordinary.

We see by the Asuncion papers that the absurd mania for digging for buried treasure has revived up there, and applications for leave to do so are raining on the Government.

Nicholas Pierola, Dictator of Peru, is a decidedly popular man in the River Plate to-day. The Montevidean papers have started a portrait of him which, we are assured, is a perfect likeness of the Khan of Tartary, and bears a strong family resemblance to Tom Walker, but is not a bit like Pierola.

The latest census returns of New York show that its population is almost equally divided as to sex, there being 615,000 females and 590,000 males. This is a much better showing than is made, we will not say by Massachusetts, the purgatory of spinsters, but even by the city of brotherly love, in which the females exceed the males by 37,000. In the lower part of New York, below East or West Houston-streets, the men outnumber the women. Above that point the women outnumber the men, notably in the Nineteenth, Twenty second and Twelfth wards, in which are to be found four-fifths of the excess of females over males, charged to the whole city. The Nineteenth Ward for instance (in which live the greatest number of our citizens) contributes 13,000 to this excess. Of course this does not prove that girls more abound in the families of the well-to-do than of the needy, but simply that more female servants are employed in that ward than in others. The foreign population of the city is pressing close upon the native element. Of the citizens born in New York 728,000, and of citizens born abroad 479,000.

The National Government intends suppressing its Immigration agencies in France, Spain and Italy, and will open others in Ireland, Russia, Germany and Sweden.

A 'bola' to the effect that the captain of the La France had been shot in a duel here was circulated in Montevideo last week. We should say the captain is not such a fool as to give any one a chance of shooting him in such a way.

ON 'CHANGE.

Jan. 17th, 1881

Patacons.....	29.15
Cedulas A	87½
National Bank Shares..	71½

The week has opened on a rising gold market ; prices began at 29 and closed at 29.15, which even astonished the ring. One half of the brokers attribute the advance to secret news from Chile, but the other half attribute it to a far surer source, the news from Europe. We heard on 'Change that one of our principal houses received telegram this morning cancelling orders and retiring credits ; the state of the European markets for River Plate produce is most unfavorable. The cash sales of gold reached $f.144,030, and for February and March sales were made at 29.10. Cedulas improved somewhat, closing at 87½. National Bank Shares are again down and pushed on the market at 71½.

Exchange ruled flatter to-day, and takers offering at 49⅝ drawers ask 49⅞ ; some bills on France passed at 5.29, and on Antwerp at same rate. Most of the banks took last week all they could get at 50d, and now owing to the exchange operation by the Government and Bank the rate shows a slight alteration; further more the wool is not selling, and it is thought that much wool is going forward for 'acopiadores' account. Mr Green reports 32,542 bales wool shipped since 14th of Dec, which shows a much brisker business in the barracas than in the Plazas.

In the wool markets this morning very little business done ; buyers hold back until they hear about the Havre auction, which begins to morrow. The advices from Europe, however, are most unfavorable.

The re-sale of a square league of land in Partido Chacabuco is reported. The land was bought last month when we made the trip to Venado Tuerto for $500,000 m/c., when we reported the business. It has now been resold for $700,000 m/c.; Mr M Elliff purchaser.

Another important sale of four leagues of the ten thousand dollar a league land near Gainza is reported by Dr Kimball, the well-known dentist, at the rate of $80,000 m/c per league, and Dr Newberry has declined a similar offer for his land in the same district ; he won't sell under 100,000 m/c per league. Colonel A. Roca has also received an offer of $90,000 m/c per league for some 20 leagues he bought at Carhue, but refuses to sell under 100,000 m/c per league.

The well-known Ochoa house in Calle Reconquista, facing Mr Seelorf's botica, was sold on Saturday for 1,621,000 m/c ; Mr J G Peña buyer. This is one of the best central city properties ; the legal valuation was 1,036,400, and we hear that a well-known real estate broker was paid his full commission not to attend the sale, which is the second time the broker in question was feed to remain away.

The sales at the ring were—

For cash 144,030 at 29 -29.05-10-15
For Jan. 18th 20,000 29.10
For Jan. 22nd, 45,000 29.05-10-15

Sales, 828,030.

For Feb. 28th 50 shares at 72
Sales, 315.

Gold at after hours ruled more sellers than buyers, and sales effected at 29.15 ; market closed sellers.

The two new steamers for the Campana Railway entered Montevideo to-day, they will run between Campana and Rosario, and we trust do a good business.

Another of Mess-rs Donaldson's steamers, the Effective entered to-day full with cargo for here and Montevideo.

The French packet Senegal entered port this morning ; she will be in quarantine till three o'clock on 21st ; her mails were delivered this afternoon. We note that the Times has a long and interesting leading article on the Argentine Republic.

All the merchants seemed to have bad telegrams from Europe ; in fact the question is when will bottom be touched over there. The news by telegram from Europe caused depression in the market. Mr N Fernandez sold one lot of Entre Rios wool at the Once, 4,000 arrobas, at reserved price. Messrs Duggan sold—

1500 ar. fine wool at 108
2000 ar. good wool, 95
1200 ar. do, 92

Exchange ½ premium on Montevideo, and bills on London passed at 49⅝. They say the Bank is about to announce its rate. Merchants ask what has become of the monthly balance-sheet for December.

We have received by the mail Messrs John Barth & Sons Hop report from Nuremberg, a most interesting paper ; also Messrs Wisaner & Chapeauroug-'s wheat circular for the week, they report large arrivals last week, 9482 fan. wheat and 705 bags or 564o ar. flour.

The auction of the Ochoa property at the Alsina bridge amounted to nil, not a single bid, although the bridge itself was put up.

Some important sales of the native aguardiente reported, and which have put down the price of the imported article.

Two large vessels are now discharging wire and posts at Bahia Blanca, to wire fence the great Tornquist estancia down there.

Telegrams from Valparaiso to day state that they are sending up 10,000 more men to reinforce Chilian army.

Mr Lloyd, of Rosario, was welcomed on 'Change, he confirms the report that there are one thousand men now on the works of the Andine Extension Railway ; also Dr McInnes, who has also arrived from Rosario. Mr Ricketts and Mr Huxham leave to-night for Montevideo. Mr Devotto has resigned his post on the Water Board.

Mr Raihje, who has arrived out in Salier was enveloped in friends when he entered the Bolsa, every one was delighted to see him back again in the Plate.

The Barracas and Riachuelo question, it was rumoured on Change, has been satisfactorily settled ; ships go up, and Custom House puts on more hands; as for the wine business we learn from a money broker that the cheapest place for wine is not Barracas but the Plaza Once, where they make what is called azotea dinaire, and a capital wine they say it is, made from black berries which the boys gather around the quintas in Flores.

At the Plaza Once there was intense excitement to-day caused by the first waggon load of account books etc, arriving there from the Parque station; the moving of the Parque station has at last begun.

Import—

Salt—Rivers sales 8½ ; 7 here. Heavy stocks.

Coal—Cardiff $f.9 ; rivers $f.10. Saleable.

Lumber—Pitch pine $f.44. White $f.43.

Freights in general—

Since the commencement of the month the freight market has been very unsettled. On the 3rd inst the rate on bales by steamer dropped from 35s and 10 o/o to 30s and 10 o/o, a few days later to 30s in full, and on the 10th to 25s and 10 o/o, which is to-day's rate. The wool telegrams are most discouraging, and business is limited in consequence. 23,000 bales have been exported during the month against 41,935 bls. same time last year. Ten steamers are now in port loading, against 14 at this time last year.

Only a few troops of horned cattle have been slaughtered, but towards the end of this or beginning of next month killing will become general. In consequence of low prices ruling in Europe buyers are holding off the market, and no contract of importance has yet transpired. Only one charter is reported to load at Paysandu. Sixty nine vessels are disengaged against 62 same time last year.

Exports in wheat have begun, and as the crops in this province and Sta. Fe are good, will likely increase, and will be of importance during the next three or four months. There will also be a large export of maize and linseed.

The last advices from Valparaiso give the following :—

"The Ferrocarril says that four of the cargoes of nitrate sent to the U. States for account of the Government have been sold at 3⅛ to 3⅛ cents lb., gold, which is equal to about $3.50 per cwt. It is expected that the net proceeds will show a profit of a little more than one dollar per cwt.

"Three cargoes of guano, consisting of 6,716 tons, taken from Pabellon de Pica, have brought into the Treasury 185,000 dollars. Three more ships are loading 6,200 tons.

"On the 26th ult. exchange on London was quoted in the Peruano of Lima at 43d.

"The Chilian barque Matador, which arrived here on the 11th instant, from Juan Fernandez, brought the crew of nine of the German barque Elise, which was sunk by a collision with the British barque L. King, from Rio de Janeiro to San Francisco, in Lat. 28o 20' S., and Long. 70° 20' W. The Elisa was from Bremen for Callao with an assorted cargo. The L King landed the crew of the Elisa at Juan Fernandez."

The following late news about the Antwerp wool market, from Messrs Bunge & Co. of that city, under date December 16th, 1880, is important :—

Wool—

The market has continued quiet, but with a moderate available supply rates show no appreciable change. The article's statistical position appears in a favourable light, more especially so as far as our market is concerned, and hopes are pretty generally expressed that once the dull period usually attendant upon the turn of the year passed, we will see a better demand spring up.

The following is now our statistical position :—

	Bales.	Bales.
Stock on 2nd inst.		4,443
Arrivals from Buenos Aires	1,504
" Montevideo..	32	1,536
" Rivers.....	—	—
		5,979
Sales by private contract..	398
Public sales	—
Transit.....	136	534
Stock to-day		5,445

Public sales held in London closed on the 11th inst. with values showing little or no alteration. Demand during the last week had become more active so that the close of these sales can but favourably impress the trade.

Sheepskins—

The demand is very moderate. Whatever little has been sold realized firm rates, but the tendency of the market is in buyers' favour.

Sales, 62 bales and 119 b lots.

Stock, 1,100 bales.

Rather important auctions in which about 8,000 bales will be brought forward opened in Bordeaux yesterday.

The first sitting went off without spirit; out of 1,640 bales off red, only 270 bales could be sold at prices establishing a decline of 5 to 10 centimes on October rates.

Hides—

The market taken as a whole shows little animation, and the prospects for an early improvement are not encouraging. Owners though not inclined to force their stock are ready to meet buyers' views and the market has developed a yielding tendency. Thus a parcel of 2,019 Mocoreta cows 20-25 kilos was sold at fs.73, which marks a decline of fs.2-3 for this description.

Dry hides of which the supply is becoming more ample are also less firmly held, and on some occasions sales have been effected at a decline of fs.5.

Epidemic hides are reaching us in pretty liberal quantities, being worth fs.115-118 for good ox and cow, fs.100-105 for desechos, and fs.115-120 for kips.

Disasters—

Barque Farewell (Brit.) Cole, from Montreal, Nov. 15th, for R. Plate arrived at Quebec, Nov. 18th, considerably damaged by collision in Lake St. Peter, with a schooner and steamer Lombard. She repaired and proceeded on Nov. 22nd.

Brig Onward (Brit) Emond, which sailed from Quebec, Nov. 20th, for B. Aires, put back Nov. 22nd, with her steering apparatus out of order.

Quebec, Nov. 23rd. Owing to the sudden and unprecedentedly early severe frosts here it is pretty certain that those vessels remaining in port will be frozen in and unable to get away this season. Among the vessels named as in the port of Quebec on the date are the brig Onward loaded at Quebec, and the brig S Fortin loaded at Montreal, both for B. Aires. Late reports state that these vessels have gone into winter quarters.

Brig Pamlico (Brit.) Stone, from Quebec, Nov. 15th, for Montevideo, went ashore at Lance aux Fraiser, Anticosti Nov. 26th, and will no doubt be a total loss. Crew saved.

Barque Alice (Brit.) Gagnion, from Montreal Nov. 13th for Montevideo, put into North Sydney, C. B., Nov. 26th, with loss of deck load, boats, bulwarks, pumps, sails and gear, in the late gale, and is also badly strained and leaking. Will probably have to discharge and repair before proceeding. Four of the crew were badly injured.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The French steamer Senegale entered Montevideo on Sunday and refused to go into quarantine there, so she will have to ride it out here. The news is important. England and France are going hand and hand in the Greek Question. The Austro-Hungarian Chambers have authorized a fresh emission of 15½ millions of Rentes. The number of police magistrates in Ireland is to be increased largely.

Mr Dantas, Chief of the Camp Police, has a rather stiff bit of work before him to lick that useless force into anything like tolerable shape. On his recent visit of inspection to San Nicolas, the Chief found all the officers of the local police fast asleep, and half a dozen fellows, in civilian clothes, who represent 'the force,' lounging about, doing nothing in particular, and doing it thoroughly. After Mr Dantas had waited half an hour, the officer in command turned up in a pair of 'alpargatas,' half awake, and with his hair uncombed. Mr. D. gave him a sharp bit of his mind, which the proprietor of the 'alpargatas' seemed to mind very little. If police affairs are in such a state in a bustling river town like San Nicolas, what must they be in inland towns and partidos ?

The Minister of the Interior, Dr Viso, visited yesterday several of the charitable institutions of the city.

LATEST FROM IRELAND.

Dublin, Dec. 17, 1881.

Last evening a disturbance of a serious character took place at Irishtown, within four miles of Claremorris and seven of Tuam. A number of persons attempted a forcible entry upon a farm from which a man had been evicted. The police tried to prevent them, but they assaulted the police, whereupon the constabulary fired, wounding four of the mob. Two men were arrested.

To-day Mr Henderson, solicitor for two men who had claims for compensation for malicious injuries, declared at the Tuam Sessions that they would forfeit their right to any compensation, as, owing to the great intimidation and terrorism that prevailed, they could not go on with their application in the face of the public disapdrobation. They renounced their legal and just claim to large compensatory sums.

The Press Association says it has learned on inquiry at the Horse Guards and the Admiralty, that arrangements are being made to send between four and five thousand men to Ireland, should it be necessary.

At the Waterford Assizes yesterday the Solicitor-General applied for the postponement of the trial of the two men charged with the murder of Mr Boyd, New Ross, on the ground that 59 persons on the grand jury list had been present at a Land League demonstration four days before the assizes, and one of them had collected funds in Waterford for the League. Justice Barry reserved judgment.

The United States House of Representatives, according to a Reuter's telegram, yesterday passed the following resolution:—'That the sympathy of this House is hereby extended to the unhappy labouring class of Ireland in its effort to effect a reform in the present oppressive tenant system.'

Mr Michael Davitt was present at a meeting yesterday at Blessington, county Wicklow, and commented strongly on a case of eviction which had just taken place. He said the Land League wanted to see the day when any landlord going to an honest man for rent would be told to go to the devil and earn money for himself.

Mr Justice Lawson, in charging the grand jury at Belfast yesterday, remarked that though the calendar for the several counties included in the assize was light, he was compelled to notice the fact that the returns of undetected crime showed that the system of intimidation which had so long prevailed in the southern and western counties was gradually making itself felt in the north. There was a system of intimidation prevailing which threatened to upset altogether the operations of her Majesty's judges. His lordship referred to the published proceedings of so-called Land League 'courts,' and instancing the penalties there imposed, said that these men knew that they would paralyse altogether the arm of the law if they succeeded in intimidating those who served the writs of her Majesty's courts; and it must be apparent to every man of common sense that the ordinary remedy of the law was unable to cope with this state of things. The learned judge said that the people of England were slow to move, but when they did move there slumbered in their arm a giant strength, which would put an end to the proceedings of this disgraceful conspiracy against law and order.

A rumour has reached Dublin that the Government are about to arrest the prominent leaders of the Land League, and the magistrates throughout the country are about to be armed with extraordinary powers.

The Land League at their weekly meeting in Dublin adopted an address to the people of Ulster, in which they protest against attempts to create and foster sectarian animosity. They contend that there is nothing whatever of a sectarian character in the present land movement, and point in corroboration to the fact that the dignitaries and priesthood of the Roman Catholic Church are themselves divided on the subject, some supporting the demands of the tenant-farmers, while others are in favour of maintaining a territorial caste. Mr. T. D. Sullivan, M.P., spoke in strong terms of the Lord Chief-Justice, and said that if his Lordship were to take part in the approaching trial, he would recommend that the traversers should withdraw their defences.

It is reported that the Land League are about to issue an order to tenants to deduct all taxes for extra police from their rents before paying at Griffith's valuation.

A meeting of Land League delegates, at Ennis, yesterday, decided to have no further transactions with county attorneys, who aided landlords by means of ejectments and suit-processes. It was also resolved that all persons who had obtained farms since the establishment of the Land League should be asked to surrender.

A man named Michael Tinohy, of Ballinamore, another herd belonging to Mr O'Donnell, was Boycotted at Balla yesterday, people being warned not to buy anything from him.

The trial of the men charged with murder of Mr Boyd at New Ross has been removed from the present Waterford Assizes to the spring assizes at Kilkenny, on the ground of Land League influence having been brought to bear upon jurors of Waterford.

Mr Bence Jones, a Cork landlord, is being subjected to treatment similar to that suttered by Captain Boycott. On Monday all the men in his employment, numbering 28, left him, having received notices threatening them with death if they did not do so. The local shopkeepers have refused supplies, and the smiths will not do any work for him. On Monday Mr Jones's son and daughter were engaged in feeding the cattle and in looking after the dairy. Extra police have arrived in the neighbourhood.

The Times hears that Lord Kenmare is about to leave Ireland in consequence of the condition of his neighbourhood. He had lately built a new house at Killarney, and recently employed a skilled carpenter to finish some windows, to the exclusion of local workmen. He received notice that it this man was not immediately dismissed the house would be burnt down. Last year, in consequence of the distress, Lord Kenmare borrowed £20,000 from the Board of Works in order to give employment to his people.

The Earl of Shannon is one of the latest recipients of threatening letlers warning him that he will be 'served out' like Lord Leitrim and Lord Mountmorres. For some months past Lord Shannon has been residing at Castle Martyr, near Cork, and, to afford all possible employment to the poor on his estate, has kept many hundreds at wood-cutting and faggot-making, in return for which his lordship has been taunted with spending all his money in England, and was denounced at a late meeting of the Land League that was held in the neighbourhood. Bills have been posted on all his barns and gates forbidding the purchase of faggots or firewood for fear of the consequences. His lordship, like many others, is compelled to carry a six-shooter with him whenever he leaves the house.

At yesterday's meeting of the Land League Mr Davitt made a long speech, in which, on behalf of the Executive, he sought to clear the League from blame in respect of the numerous outrages which have been reported, many of which he declared were 'manufactured.' The crimes of violence actually committed in the country in the last two years were summed up by Mr Davitt as being 'five homicides,' and 'a small number of attacks upon individuals.' He said that the Executive were about to make some suggestions for the guidance of branches of the League, and in these suggestions they should embody their opinion on outrages. The League adopted a manifesto to the branches. It urges that there must be no compromise or partnership with landlordism, and that the proposals known as the three 'F's' must be repudiated.

The Daily Telegraph says:—"A last touch of hopelessness seems imparted to affairs in Ireland by the acquittal of Messrs. Healy and Walsh on the charge of intimidating Cornelius Manning into giving up his farm. The machinery of justice will not act, the arm of the law is powerless, when there is an occult but all-powerful force outside the court, causing terrified witnesses to recant their previous testimony. That potent 'advice' which the Land League branches are capable of giving, and which the trembling witness who foreswore himself in the box declared had not frightened him in the least, can be applied not only to witnesses but to jurors as well; so that even if a bold testifier comes forward to denounce the existing state of terrorism, there is likely to be at least one among the twelve men in the jury-box who will decline to decide in favour of authority and against the wishes of Mr Parnell. When such a state of things has been reached, the 'beginning of the end' may be truly said to have arrived as far as the existence of society and the maintenance of order are concerned. Neither society nor order exist where the influence of the Land League has spread, as is plainly visible from the figures quoted by Baron Dowse in his recent charge to the grand jury of the Connaught assizes. 'In the whole county Galway,' says the Judge, 'we have 13 cases for trial at the present assizes; there have been 291 indictable offences, and 278 people have declined to prosecute'. Why have they 'declined to prosecute?' Why have 215 out of 236 persons injured in the county Mayo 'refused to give any assistance to bring the guilty persons to justice?
